2015 Classification

- ECU has classification (2008)
- Re-apply through an abbreviated application process that will ask for evidence of changes that have taken place on campus (practices, structures, policies) to deepen community engagement and make it more pervasive across the institution
Categories of Practice in Need of Development

• Assessment
  – assessing community perceptions of institutional engagement;
  – tracking and recording of institution-wide engagement data;
  – assessment of the impact of community engagement on students, faculty, community, and institution;
  – identification and assessment of student learning outcomes in curricular engagement;
  – ongoing feedback mechanisms for partnerships.

B. Velde, PSCR
Categories of Practice in Need of Development

• Partnerships
  – Maintaining authentically collaborative, mutually beneficial partnerships takes ongoing commitment, and we urge institutions to continue their attention to this critical aspect of community engagement.

Categories of Practice in Need of Development

• Faculty Rewards
  – We urge Community Engagement institutions to initiate study, dialogue, and reflection to promote and reward the scholarship of engagement more fully.

Categories of Practice in Need of Development

• Alignment with other campus priorities and initiatives to achieve greater impact
  – There remain significant opportunities for campuses to develop collaborative internal practices that integrate disparate initiatives into more coherent community engagement efforts.
