Join us for a chance to experience the 200-year old history, heritage, and ongoing tradition of pottery making in Seagrove, North Carolina! Nestled in the countryside of NC you will find the largest concentration of working potters in the United States. This day-long trip will start with a visit to the dynamic and engaging North Carolina Pottery Center where we will learn about the history of Seagrove, followed by lunch (lunch is not included in the trip cost). After lunch we will make exclusive visits to popular Seagrove Potters’ studios. All stops are designed to show the broad range of pottery produced in Seagrove, from traditional to contemporary and from practical to whimsical. This day trip will include a full itinerary from 7:00am - 7:00pm, bus transportation included! Meet at the Willis Building at 7:00am.
